Join Loudoun's Virginia Cooperative Extension Master Gardener Class of 2022

Apply before October 23, 2021

Sent: August 4, 2021

Are you interested in becoming a Master Gardener Volunteer through the Loudoun County Office of Virginia Cooperative Extension?

Submit your application now to join the Master Gardener Class of 2022!

APPLY HERE!

The Extension Master Gardener Volunteers work through the Loudoun County Office of Virginia Cooperative Extension to educate the County's residents with horticultural and environmental information based on the research and experience of Virginia Tech and Virginia State University.

If you want to learn more about sustainable landscape practices and can volunteer your time to give back to the community, please consider applying. A horticulture background is NOT necessary.

What VCE Master Gardeners Do:

- Answer horticulture and environmental questions through the Help Desk, Demonstration Garden, and Garden Clinics
- Provide outreach at the Loudoun County Extension Office and at local community events
- Maintain a Demonstration and Teaching Garden at Ida Lee Park in Leesburg
- Promote the protection of the environment, with a focus on water quality
- Advise on appropriate and safe use of pesticides and fertilizers
- Conduct education programs for diverse groups on proper care of turf grass, woody plants, food crops, and ornamentals
