Explain the circumstances I read the crime report for Loudoun county and have an idea on on why you are paying

this compliment:

what these guys deal with everyday. I cheer when they catch the bad guy, worry when they don't, and wonder at the stupidity of people who assault the law and try to get away after committing abominable crimes. These deputies/officers - or at least the tall young man I dealt with - was polite, personable, and reasonable. One worries these days what one will be dealing with when facing an officer - fear on each side due to outside circumstances- but this was such a positive experience, I couldn't help but write in with praise for the personable professionalism (there is cold professionalism) exhibited. Kind regards, [REDACTED]

Sheriff Chapman,

On behalf of Neil Moore and myself, I wanted to say to you how much we enjoyed coming to the Loudoun County Sheriffs Office last week and sharing FBI-LEEDA's Command Leadership Institute. From the moment we arrived all of your staff went above and beyond to make us feel welcome and at home. I can say without hesitation, all the participants in this class enjoyed the time they had together. Many new friendships were developed during our time together as all networked with each other.

While everyone we met here were excellent ambassadors for your agency, I must call out one person in particular from your training facility and let you know how much he meant to us. Lieutenant Chris Sawyer was always there to make sure everyone was comfortable and well taken care of during the week. He is one of the most prepared persons I have encountered in my many travels. He started helping me long before I arrived and he had the class well organized before we started on Monday morning. Because of him, no one was going to loose weight this week with all the snacks and drinks we always on hand.

Sheriff Chapman, on behalf of our Executive Director Skip Robb, and all of us at FBI-LEEDA, we would like to thank you for joining us on this journey to improve our profession through leadership training. I called Skip on Friday afternoon from the airport just to pass along your comments to him. He spoke so positively about the relationship between you two and it typifies what we teach in our classes. Please feel free to contact any of us through the FBI-LEEDA office if we can ever be of any help to you or your agency. It was a pleasure to get to

Dear Sheriff Chapman:

I would like to express my sincere appreciation for the assistance Sergeant John Davis recently provided to the Alexandria Sheriff's Office. Sergeant Davis served as an assessor in our promotional process last month, spending a week with our consultants and with members of other local agencies who also assisted us.

We are grateful for Sergeant Davis's commitment and professionalism in evaluating candidates for the rank of sergeant. Participation in promotional assessments can be challenging for those evaluating candidates as they must remain engaged and fair at all times. We appreciate Sergeant Davis's focus and impartiality, as well as his investment of time in helping us identify deputies qualified for promotion.

Due to the diligent efforts of this group of assessors, several eligible candidates were identified for promotion and I was proud to promote one of them this week. Sergeant Davis played a critical role in the success of this promotional process and I'm thankful for his contributions.

Finally, Sergeant Davis represented you and your department in a highly professional manner and our staff was grateful for his thorough attention throughout the week. On behalf of the Alexandria Sheriff's Office, please extend my thanks to Sergeant Davis for a job very well done.

Sincerely,

Dana Lawhorne
Sheriff

Incident Information

Please enter the deputy(s) / employee(s) names: Master Deputy Jeffery Martin # 2106
Incident Location: Eastern Loudoun Senior Center lot
Date of Incident: 01-03-16
Time of Incident: around 3:30 am

Explain the circumstances on why you are paying this compliment:

My wife and I would like to express our sincere appreciation to MD Jeff Martin for his exemplary service. We received a follow-up call from him this evening around 7:30 pm with regards to the inquiry form I submitted this afternoon. He clearly explained to us that in the coming days/weeks, we can expect more information with regards to the case filed against the other party and offered some suggestions like to contact the SRO of Potomac Falls HS about our concern of the other party trying to contact or harassing our daughter in school or neighborhood. Dep. Martin made us feel relieved when he explained that he clearly understood our beliefs and culture about how and why we were feeling upset. He also explained that we should expect a call from the Victim Representative Office and a note regarding a future court date. Again, we commend MD Martin for his efforts and assistance. Sincerely, [REDACTED]
