Capital Infrastructure

loudoun.gov/route690study

With construction of Loudoun's planned Rt 7/Rt 690 Interchange estimated for completion between 2026 and 2027, the County is conducting a study to proactively analyze current and projected future travel volumes along Rt 690 (Hillsboro Road) in order to identify possible safety and operational improvement recommendations prior to construction of the new Interchange.

As part of the study, the County is hosting an online public comment period NOW - March 23rd in order to share current study findings and gain valuable input from area residents and business owners.
