Attend the FREE Land Preservation Through Conservation Easement Seminar

May 4 (6 pm) at Lovettsville Game Protection Association

Sent: April 22, 2022

As you likely know, Protecting western Loudoun's rural, historic and scenic character is one of my top priorities. And there's no better way to permanently protect western Loudoun than through the use of conservation easements!

That said, I want to encourage anyone with similar interests to join the Friends of the Blue Ridge Mountains, the Lovettsville Game Protective Association, and others, for a FREE barbeque dinner and seminar about the value of preserving land through conservation easements, including the financial and tax benefits.

Wednesday, May 4 at 6 pm
Lovettsville Game Protective Association, Club Hall
16 South Berlin Turnpike, Lovettsville, VA 20180

Again - there's NO COST for this event!

Speakers will include attorneys, landowners, conservation buyers, appraisers, and representatives from various land preservation organizations. Join landowners, sportsmen, and others in the effort to preserve land in Loudoun County!

RSVP by April 29th to Brook Middleton at the Virginia Easement Exchange at 540-364-8071 or dbmcpa@aol.com

If you have any questions, contact Fred George at 703-623-5134 or flgeorge3@aol.com
