Waterford Fair This Weekend! Oct 7–9, 10 AM - 5 PM

Dear Catoctin residents,

The Waterford Fair is returning this weekend for its 78th consecutive year! From Friday, October 7 through Sunday, October 9, it will showcase the carefully preserved buildings and properties of this historic village, which is a National Historic Landmark, while drawing in a broad mix of craft artisans and introducing their fine work to thousands of visitors.

Tickets for the Fair are available online or can be bought at the gate. Children under 12 attend for free.

Each day of the Fair is packed with a full schedule of events. Depending on which days you attend, you could tour Waterford's historic homes, listen to an organ grinder, spend time watching an improv theater, catch an 18th century-style magic show, and enjoy more than a few artisan demonstrations.

Here's the map of where you can find these activities and events:

Speaking of the artisans, just reading their descriptions is a delight. Their crafts run the gamut from period wood furniture and reproduction 18th century ironwork to gourd pottery and custom hardwood walking sticks. And the photographs of their work are delicious.

Here's just a small selection of what is being offered for you to see (and purchase to take home) this weekend:

So come to Waterford this weekend and enjoy their remarkable Fair. If you haven't had the chance to attend the Waterford Fair before, you should definitely give it a try. If you have, then you already know why you want to come again this year.
