Date: November 8, 2016

Eastern Loudoun Station

(Sectors 210, 220, 230, 240, 250, 260, 270, 280, 290)

Date &amp; Time	Location	Incident
11/03/16 2330 hrs.	20900 block Trinity Sq. Sterling	Larceny: A resident reported that on November 3 they heard a garage door open. The following morning the resident discovered their garage door was open but no entry was made into the home as the interior garage door was locked. On November 7, the resident heard about similar incidents in the area and they then discovered a garage door opener was taken from their vehicle.
11/07/16 2232 hrs.	20900 block Davenport Dr. Sterling	Obstruction of Justice: Deputies responded to a restaurant for a disorderly subject. The subject left the area and was possibly intoxicated. The subject was located by a deputy in the area of Davenport Drive. The subject was taken into custody and as deputies attempted to place him into a cruiser he kicked the door. The subject continued to resist being placed in the patrol car before he was secured in the vehicle. Nhan T. Duong, 35, of Sterling was charged with drunk in public and obstruction of justice.

11/07/16 1200 hrs. 1348 hrs.	20700 block Royal Palace Sq. Sterling	Fraud: The resident noticed their computer was not working properly. The resident reached out to a company for technical support and she was advised to call several different toll free numbers. At one point she was advised she would need to pay $99.99 to fix the problem and the company would need remote access to her computer. The company representative also asked for her bank account information as they did not accept credit cards. The resident provided the information. The resident then became suspicious of the company and cancelled her bank account before any transactions occurred.
