

County Seeks Public Participation in Shaping its Six-Year Bus Operations Plan

Loudoun County is offering residents, commuters and businesses several opportunities to take part in shaping the county's Transit Development Plan (TDP). The TDP is a six-year bus operations plan for Loudoun's commuter, Metro Connection, and local bus services.

In preparation for the expected opening of the Metrorail Silver Line in Loudoun in 2020, Loudoun County Transit (LCT) is asking the public to review the recommendations in the proposed TDP to determine if the plan will be effective in expanding transportation services and enhancing the mobility of residents, employees, and visitors.

Loudoun County has scheduled focus groups and drop-in workshops throughout the county over the next few weeks as part of the "Drive LCT" campaign.
