

Hillsboro Boundary Line Adjustment Finalized: An Important Milestone in Towns 250 Year History!

I am happy to announce that on Wednesday, December 28th, the Town of Hillsboro's long awaited boundary line adjustment was finalized, tripling the Town's size from 55.36 to 171.77 acres and increasing its population estimate from 80 to 115 residents!

In addition to increased economic opportunity, improved walkability and better opportunity for infrastructure grants, the Town now includes its most significant assets and important new businesses including the Old Stone School (Hillsboro's Town Hall), Hillsboro Charter Academy, United Methodist Church, Stoneybrook Farm

& Market, and Hillsboro Bed & Breakfast along with several neighbors who have long considered themselves residents of Hillsboro.

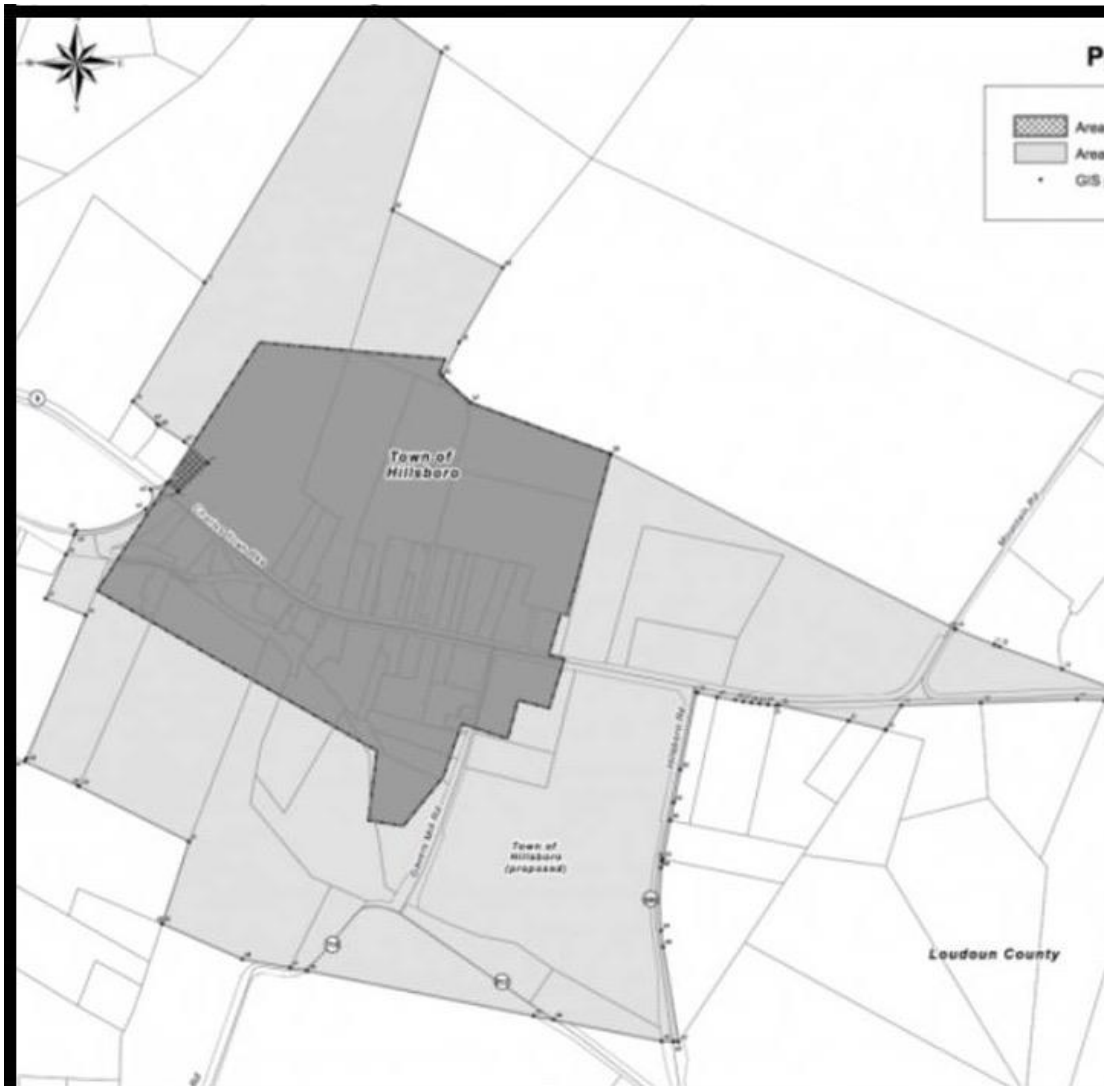

I would like to thank Hillsboro's leadership, both past and present, for many years of effort toward this vision. And I would especially like to thank Hillsboro Mayor Roger Vance, Town Councilwoman Amy Marasco-Newton and Town Attorney Liz Whiting for working with my office, county staff and the entire Board of Supervisors to make this a reality!

In the words of Mayor Vance, this improvement along with ongoing initiatives is "critical to building a viable and sustainable future for one of Loudoun's best preserved historic assets."

Congratulations to the Town of Hillsboro!
