Loudoun County Fire & Rescue is Conducting Training in Your Area Today

Friday, February 15, 2019

Good morning!

I wanted to share the below information that I just received from our Fire & Rescue Chief:

"Today will be the last day of our LCFR Acquired Structure Live Fire Training at 34989 Williams Gap Rd. Units from Round Hill, Ashburn, Lovettsville, Brambleton, Purcellville, Philomont and numerous staff are participating. Today culminates several weeks of training with Fire Marshal training being conducted earlier in the week. Today will involve live fire training so I wanted you to be aware in case you received calls. Signage has been placed on Route 7 for over a week."

All my best,
