

New Board Installation Ceremony!

Saturday at 10:00 am

(Gala to follow at 6:30 pm)

December 31, 2019

While members of the incoming 2020 - 2023 Board of Supervisors have already been sworn in to meet legal requirements, I wanted to let you know that all members of Loudoun's new Board will participate in a free Ceremonial Installation Ceremony this Saturday, January 4th, from 10:00 am until Noon, at the National Conference Center (18980 Upper Belmont Place, Leesburg, VA 20176). Those interested in attending are encouraged to do so!

In addition to the above mentioned Installation Ceremony, there will be a Gala on Saturday evening beginning at 6:30 pm, which will also be held at the National Conference Center. Dress code for the Gala is "Black Tie optional", and tickets to cover event expenses are available here for $40 per person. Excess funds will be donated equally to the following local non-profit organizations:

- Loudoun YMCA
 - Loudoun Commission on Women and Girls
 - Loudoun Hunger Relief
 - The Dulles Area Food Pantry

As shown below from earlier this month, I would like to thank the Honorable Gary Clemens (Loudoun's Clerk of the Circuit Court) for officially swearing me in for a second term in front of family and friends, overlooking beautiful western Loudoun County! I look forward to another four years of further protecting this area's unique rural, historic, and scenic character for the benefit of future generations! I will also remain heavily focused on reducing traffic congestion throughout our County!

All my best,

Tony Buffington
